

MILCOM 2006

Washington, D.C.
October 23-26, 2006

CLASSIFIED SESSION SECURITY GUIDELINES

- The MILCOM classified session photo badge will only be worn starting from the time you enter the bus and at all times on the bus, and at the Ronald Reagan Building venue. At all other times it is to be kept out of site behind your normal convention badge. You must have your classified session photo badge to gain access to the Ronald Reagan Building classified sessions.
- All classified sessions are U.S. Only and International visitors are precluded from participation.
- No note-taking is permitted during the classified sessions.
- No electronic devices are allowed in the sessions (including but not limited to, laptops, cell phones, PDAs, pagers, etc.)
- No classified discussions are permitted outside the meeting rooms
- No congregating outside of the classified briefing rooms is permitted while the briefings are in session.
- Neither Classified nor Export Controlled information shall be released to unauthorized individuals.
- Report any suspicious behavior or attempts to solicit information to the MILCOM Security staff as soon as possible. Attempt to obtain identifying information from the person in question.
- Copies of briefings will not be released at the conference.