

CLASSIFIED PANELS

PLEASE NOTE: All Classified attendees must check in at the classified bag check each morning.

MONDAY, 29 October 2007

CP-1

Information Architecture (IA) and Network Security

Monday 9:30–11:00 a.m.
Sun Ballroom A

Industry and government experts discuss issues and approaches to the technologies and policies shifting the security paradigm, including IPv6, Web 2.0 SOA, Wireless Networking, the evolution of perimeter-based security and the emerging changes in the Certification and Accreditation (C&A) of National Security Systems policy and processes.

Panel Organizer/Moderator

Jack Golden, PE, CISSP, Director–Information Assurance & Network Engineering, AT&T Government Solutions

Panelists

Sharon Ehlers, ODNI Chief Information Officer (CIO)–Policy and Planning Division, Certification and Accreditation Transformation

Dick Rzepkowski, Vice President, Harris Corporation

John Nagengast, Director–Information Assurance Programs, AT&T Government Solutions

CP-2

Improvised Explosive Devices (IED) Countermeasures

Monday 2:15–3:45 p.m.
Sun Ballroom A

The Improvised Explosive Devices (IED) Countermeasures panelists explore the operational impact of the asymmetric IED threats and advances in countering them.

Panel Organizer/Moderator

Carter Elliott, Chief, Battlefield Electronics Division, National Ground Intelligence Center

Panelists

Ed Cutright, Senior Electronics Engineer, National Ground Intelligence Center

Lt. Col. Mitchell Kilgo (Invited), J-6, Joint Chiefs of Staff

Craig Miller, Director, Engineering, Harris Corporation

CP-3

Every Soldier Is a Sensor: Flattening the Network

Monday 4:00–5:30 p.m.
Sun Ballroom A

Discussion centered on concept and enabling technology to make every soldier a sensor. Panelists will examine the current state, and associated challenges, with realizing the goal of a flat network.

Panel Organizer/Moderator

Major Eddie White, Army G-2, Training, Readiness and Simulations

Panelists

Jerry Jackson, EIT, Army G-2 Biometrics Team (Northrop Grumman)

Jennifer Zbozny, Project Manager, Warfighter Information Network–Tactical (PM WIN-T)

Kristin O'Keefe, Army G-2, Information Management Directorate

PLEASE NOTE: All Classified attendees must check in at the classified bag check each morning.

TUESDAY, 30 October 2007CP-4*New Initiatives in Intelligence Analysis

Tuesday 9:15–10:45 a.m.
Sun Ballroom A

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) is committed to radical changes to improve efficiency and effectiveness of the analytic environment. This panel will discuss such programs as A-Space, Library, and Catalyst.

Panel Organizer/Moderator

Terry Casto, Harris Corporation

Panelists

Rita Bush, IARPA, ODNI

Frank Bourne, Integrated Information Systems, Harris Corporation

Myron Stevenson, Collaboration Bootcamp, L-3Com

Bob Gourley (Invited), Former CTO, Defense Intelligence Agency

CP-5Intellipedia and Other Enterprise 2.0 Tools in the Intelligence Community

Tuesday 11:00 a.m.–12:10 p.m.
Sanibel 1

Learn how a small, but growing community of individuals are using the transparency and emergent nature of social software tools to implement a complex, adaptive Intelligence Community.

Panel Organizer/Moderator

Sean P. Dennehy, Chief, CIA Intellipedia Development

Panelist

Don Burke, Intellipedia Doyen