

L O C K H E E D M A R T I N

Leonard F. Kwiatkowski
Vice President & General Manager
Global Communications Systems
Lockheed Martin Space Systems Company

Leonard F. Kwiatkowski serves as Vice President and General Manager of Global Communications Systems for Lockheed Martin Space Systems Company. He has held a variety of executive positions with Space Systems including assignments in space systems program management, manufacturing, and product research and development.

Mr. Kwiatkowski serves on the Armed Forces Communication and Electronics Association, International Board of Directors and has served as the Military Communications Conference (MILCOM) Board Chairman. He is a Board Member of the Silicon Valley Leadership Group, member of the California Space Authority, and an Associate Fellow of the American Institute of Aeronautics & Astronautics.

Mr. Kwiatkowski's joined Lockheed Martin in 1996 after a distinguished career in the United States Air Force. His Air Force career included assignments in systems acquisition program offices, the Office of the Secretary of the Air Force, the Air Staff, and Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe. His experience includes program management responsibilities in intelligence systems, communications and aerospace systems. He retired from active duty in May 1996 at the grade of Brigadier General. His military decorations include the Air Force Distinguished Service Medal and the Legion of Merit.

Mr. Kwiatkowski earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the State University of New York at Buffalo and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Hartford. He is also a graduate of the Executive Program in Management from U.C. Berkeley, a graduate of the National Defense University, Industrial College of the Armed Forces and the Defense Systems Management College.