

J.S. “Scotty” McRoberts

Executive Vice President, Operating Group Manager

J.S. “Scotty” McRoberts is Executive Vice President of one of CACI’s largest Operating Groups. His organization leads the company in providing best-value engineering services that focus on planning, designing, building/modernizing, and supporting hardware and software for the Department of the Defense (DoD). The group has made CACI an industry leader in logistics/supply chain technology, outsourcing and privatization, commercial off-the-shelf (COTS) software integration and deployment, and tactical and embedded software engineering services.

Mr. McRoberts has over 40 years of experience and success as a naval officer and industry executive in the development, management, and growth of operational, acquisition and technology-focused organizations in support of DoD clients. He joined CACI in 1998 as Senior Vice President of CACI’s Field Services Division Group where he managed three divisions supporting Navy and Marine Corps clients in the Tidewater area of Virginia, San Diego CA, Cherry Point NC and several overseas locations.

Following retirement from the US Navy in 1995, Mr. McRoberts held positions with ManTech Systems Engineering Corporation and Universal Systems Inc (USI). At ManTech, he was Division Manager for Software Development and Fleet Support for the Navy Management Systems Support Office (NAVMASSO) which is now known as the SPAWAR Systems Center Atlantic in Norfolk, Virginia. He also served as the Program Manager for the Naval Aviation Logistics Command Management Information System (NALCOMIS). While at USI, Scotty established and managed the company’s Norfolk operations, providing support for U.S. Navy non-tactical information systems.

Mr. McRoberts’ principle area of expertise is in the area of software systems development and program management. He is a 1968 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy with a bachelor’s degree in Engineering and earned a Master of Science Degree in Computer Systems Management from the U.S. Navy Postgraduate School in 1979. Currently, he is a member of the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association (AFCEA), the Navy league and the Naval Academy Alumni Association.

Mr. McRoberts resides in San Diego, California. He has two sons and one daughter.
