George Horihan

George Horihan

Engineering Project Manager

BAE Systems

George Horihan is an engineering project manager at BAE Systems with 20 years of experience in the development of communications and navigations systems for the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD).

His current assignment is systems engineering for the Warfighter Information Network Tactical (WIN-T) and Joint Tactical Radio System (JTRS) programs.

Horihan is a member of several industry-government integrated product teams developing interoperability standards for JTRS and CDL communications systems. He has also taught graduate courses in network security and telecommunications as an adjunct professor at St. John's University in New York City, N.Y.
