November 17–19 San Diego Convention Center

Helene Skratt

Helene Skratt

Systems Director, MILSATCOM Division
The Aerospace Corporation

Helene Skratt joined the Aerospace Corporation in 2002 and provides support to SMC in the areas of program protection and international affairs. In her current position, Skratt leads the Aerospace Corporation international armaments cooperation support to the Air Force Military Satellite Communications (MILSATCOM) Systems Wing.

Prior to joining Aerospace, Skratt was president of ECON, Inc., a small consulting company providing parametric cost estimating and financial analysis of advanced space systems to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) and the aerospace community. She began her career at NASA headquarters in the space shuttle program and later led Lockheed Martin's technology commercialization activity with the international space station on behalf of the NASA Ames Research Center.
